Queen's Message

I would like to begin by saying that it has been both a pleasure and an honor to serve as the 2013 Ashville Miss Fourth of July Queen. As a young girl on the Little Miss court in 2003, I remember turning to the rear of the float to peek at the "big queens" with their pretty crowns and fancy dresses, just dreaming of my chance to wear that crown someday. In July of 2013 that dream became a reality for me. This year has been filled with adventures I never expected and memories I will never forget. I've had the opportunity to travel all around Ohio, spreading the word of our great town of Ashville and the Fourth of July Festival that takes place here each summer. This also gave me the chance to learn about many other towns and festivals, and meet the incredible ladies that were representing their towns as well.

I had lived on our family farm just outside of Ashville my entire life, and absolutely loved it! But this past August, the time came for me to begin my freshman year of college and move away from Ashville for the first time. I was scared and intimidated by all the change that was taking place, but serving as queen helped me stay so connected to and involved in everything that was going on in Ashville while I was away. It made me realize how in love with the town of Ashville I really am. I could not be more proud of where I come from, and give thanks to God for such an incredible community and hometown.

I want to thank the Ashville Community Men's Club and Mike and Kelly Spriggs for making this experience possible, and for my family and friends for all their support.

Also, a huge thanks to Jana Whittredge and Kendal Miller for being the best attendants I could have asked for. I wish the best of luck to the new queen and her court. Enjoy every minute of this experience, because it really does fly by.

In closing, I'd like to invite each of you to attend our festival held June 30-July 4 in Ashville's Community Park. There are many activities for the entire family and we're famous for our fish sandwich "as big as your hand!" The grand parade begins July 4th at 11am and we round out the festival with a terrific firework display at 10pm that night. Hope to see you all there!

Your 2013 Queen,
Logan Welch

President's Message

As president of the Ashville Community Men's Club, I would like to extend a personal invitation for each of you to join in our Old Fashioned 4th of July Celebration. The club members and the town have been coming together for five days of fun, food, rides and games for over 80 years.

The festival begins Monday, June 30th and ends on Friday, July 4th with a spectacular family fireworks display at 10:00 pm. Our midway is again provided by Triple Treat Amusements and daily ride specials will be available. Parades, pageants and of course our famous hot, delicious fish sandwich is one of the many main features.

Ashville Idol will be returning again this year and you can compete for the title of Ashville's best singer. A $200 grand prize will be given. Our entertainment committees have been busy providing the best entertainment for the two stages. We welcome the Nashville Crush on July 3rd followed by Christian Fraser on July 4th. We also feature many acts on the picnic grove stage including The Country Live Performers, Death By Banjo, and Ashville's very own The Raineys.

A special "Thank You" to our community for your support. We can't put this show on without the dedication of our many club members, their spouses, our volunteers and our businesses throughout the Ashville area. They give their time, money and most of their energy to promote Ashville throughout the year. We thank you!

Please come join us for a great Old Fashioned 4th of July Celebration – Ashville Style!

Thank you,
Doug Clark
President

CHRISTIAN KASER BAND

On the inside of Christian Kaser's right arm is a tattoo he got for free. Not because of a dare on a wild night out, but because the image Christian wanted inked into his skin forever was so unique to the tattoo artist, he offered to do it at no cost. And that image, an owl's head with the body of an octopus, says more about Christian Kaser the man and musician, than any artist bio ever could.

"The owl symbolizes wisdom. And the octopus can do many things at once, touching feeling, surviving, all with grace," Christian explained. "It's how I try to live my life each day."

That unique perspective and courage to be exactly who he wants to be - odd tattoo and all - is a perfect representation of Christian's life as a musician. With his musical influences ranging from Wilco to Keith Urban to Bob Marley, Kaser offers a fresh new perspective on country, roots and pop music that is a breath of fresh air.

After spending time in the studio in Nashville, Tenn., this summer writing and recording new material, Christian is excited to further develop his identity as a singer/songwriter who writes songs about every day life and emotions that are easily accessible and recognizable to listeners but from his unique perspective and voice.

"I try to connect emotions - the highs, lows and in-betweens," Christian said. "I'm not abstract. My songs are straightforward and honest."

Christian released his first solo EP in the early spring of 2013. Recorded in Nashville, Tenn., Christian has worked with Brennan Willis ("The Undeserving") and Allen Salmon, a Nashville-based producer, writer and mix engineer who has worked with a wide variety of acts in the Christian and mainstream markets (Eastern Block Adam Agin, Neulore, Building 429, Matt Redman, MuteMath to name a few).
