A New Year Results in New Rates for Refuse Removal

For residential refuse removal the rate will go from $13.36 to $14.34 for the January bill. This is the result of a $3/ton fee by SWACO. SWACO handles the transfer facility and landfill. They are passing along an OhioEPA fee. The additional 68¢ is from the 2009 contract that can be reviewed at our website: ashvilleohio.gov under Services-Refuse.

For more information review the table to the right or go to our website www.ashvilleohio.gov

Walnut Creek Watershed Jurisdictions

MORPC invites you to learn more about the draft Walnut Creek Balanced Growth Plan. Community representatives and stakeholders in the Walnut Creek Watershed worked together in this voluntary effort to address the interrelated issues of water quality and economic competitiveness. The resulting plan will also include an implementation toolbox, containing information and resources for communities to consider as they keep an eye toward enhancing the economic and environmental health of the watershed.

The public has the opportunity to provide input on the draft Walnut Creek Balanced Growth Plan. Submit comments during the 30-day public review period January 18-February 17, 2012. The draft plan will be available at libraries in the watershed and at balancedgrowthplanning.morpc.org beginning January 18. Click on "Walnut Creek" to access the plan and to view the planning area, which includes parts of Fairfield, Franklin, and Pickaway counties.

Comments can be emailed to David Rutter at drutter@morpc.org or mailed to MORPC, 111 Liberty St., #100, Columbus, OH 43215.
