

Committee of the Whole Agenda Items See 2

Establish active business association

1. All duties will be handled by the planning, visioning economic development committee
2. Council will draft goals and purpose statement for association by August 1, 2011
Purpose Statement:

Goal:

3. Share ideas and results with present business association
4. Send letter to all local businesses by August 15,2011
5. Hold breakfast with businesses and council in September 2011
6. Establish objectives and desired activities for desired association
7. Send follow-up letter to all businesses and association leaders assessing progress and extent of "buy-in" by October 15, 2011
8. Invite Association leaders and members to sub-committee meetings

The Place to Be

Downtown Columbus. It's a place to live, do business and have fun. A place to experience big-city life in small-town comfort. A place where you can kick back, kick ball or kick-start your dreams. A place to call home or headquarters. And it all starts here with resources for living, doing business and experiencing everything downtown.

The Columbus Chamber is here to help your business thrive. Our team can connect you with the people, information and resources your business needs to prosper in the Columbus Region

"The Historic Dublin Business Association is a not for profit organization comprised of business and property owners working together to promote business prosperity and to preserve and enhance the integrity of Historic Dublin."

- We are a consortium of businesses and individuals who believe in the past, present and future of our community.
- We create opportunities for members to promote and improve the quality of life in Downtown Watertown.
- We provide significant input into downtown planning and marketing downtown Watertown, and promote a feeling of well-being.
- We encourage communications through a powerful networking environment, not only through members, but through member organizations.
- We further provide informational seminars, web site availability and a forum for change.

Downtown Birmingham Alabama welcomes you to the Magic City, where you will find authentic southern hospitality immersed in tradition; mingled with attractions, dining, entertainment and accommodations. If you are looking for culture, sports, sightseeing or a little of each, our city center presents a diverse array of exciting choices!

If you are a resident of downtown, you may visit with our member businesses and find information that will help you connect to your local government to aid you in performing business in the city.

As a Birmingham visitor, you can discover the essentials about our stimulating arts, music and entertainment scenes. There is always something new to entice, interest and amaze. We want your stay to be pleasurable.